

Integrated Technology Teacher

Stephen T. Badin High School is seeking a qualified candidate to teach Integrated Technology. This course is a required course for all freshmen. This year long course provides students with a full range of basic technology competencies while emphasizing skills that will integrate into other classes. Students will employ their personal iPads while learning basic word processing, presentations, spreadsheets and database concepts. Web sites are created for class use. Professional-appearing research papers and letters are produced. Students will work with a variety of software platforms, with the goal of developing a basic skill set in a collaborative environment.

Students receive training in computer and Internet security and are instructed to demonstrate safe, legal and ethical behaviors regarding the use of technology and information. Students will develop proficiencies in the use of online research, collaboration and communication tools. Additionally, students will master hardware concepts such as computer identification, diagnostics, installation and repair.

Candidates submitting a resume for this position should have working knowledge and be proficient in teaching the following software: Google apps for education, Microsoft Office Products, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator, Windows Operating Systems, IOS for iPads, a various iPad apps including Keynote, iMovie, iBooks, Edmodo, Study Flash, Evernote.

Other technical proficiencies include: safety and security, formal letter writing, citations, general hardware diagnostics and repair.

Candidates must have fingerprints, background check, and VIRTUS current with the Archdiocese of Cincinnati prior to starting the position. Interested Candidates should submit a cover letter, resume and complete contact information for three references by email to Brian Pendergest, Principal at bpendergest@badinhs.org by May 13, 2019.